

WOLSEY LODGES

Wades House

Page No. 42

Everyone deserves to be pampered occasionally and a stay at this lovely house will provide guests with an unforgettable experience, starting with afternoon tea. Set in six acres of glorious landscaped gardens and woodland, Wades House is a beautifully decorated haven of peace and tranquillity offering guests a chance to unwind and relax with good food and company. From the formal drawing room with its' beautiful furnishings and lovely garden views to the comfortable sitting room, and from the dramatic dining room to the cosy, welcoming kitchen where most guests choose to have breakfast, everything in this house combines beautifully to create a wonderful atmosphere.

Your Hosts

Tony and Jenny have the gift of making you feel you have known them for years. They are relaxed, welcoming, friendly and enjoy entertaining. They both have a love of fine food and Jenny, an experienced trained cook, takes pride in producing the most delicious breakfasts and dinners for guests. They are also keen gardeners with a love of the countryside.

The Location

This is an historically significant region of the country, Stonehenge and the magnificent cathedrals of Winchester and Salisbury are within easy reach. In addition there are gardens to visit at Mottisfont Abbey, Hilliers Arboretum, and Longstock Water Gardens and sporting enthusiasts can enjoy horse racing at Newbury, motor racing at Thruxton or fishing on the River Test.
