

WOLSEY LODGES

Byleat

A 1920's Fishing Lodge with fine 17th and 18th century interiors most beautifully furnished with magnificent antique furniture and works of art allied to modern comforts, with wonderful gardens. Style dead? Glamour gone? Romance out of fashion? Clearly you have not been to Byleat!

Brilliantly situated for exploring Devon and Cornwall between Tavistock in the Dartmoor National Park yet within 30 minutes of the magnificent South Hams coast. The Lost Gardens of Heligan and The Eden Project are within easy reach.

Three enchanting bedrooms enjoy spellbinding moorland views. Azalea, a double aspect suite with shower room and charming boudoir. Camelia, a double with luxurious private bathroom. A romantic Louis XV bedroom, Wisteria, twin with en suite and spacious private balcony. Magnificent reception rooms are furnished from amongst the finest country houses in Devon, including Saltram House.

Your Hosts

Susie has owned and managed upmarket venues in both the West Indies and England. She has a passion for antiques, fine food and wines allied to superb produce from the family owned farm in Tavistock, the award winning market town. Meals are cooked to order using the very finest local ingredients. John, Susie's partner, is engaged in international multimedia 'life style' productions.
