

WOLSEY LODGES

West Farm

Page No. 29

West Farm, 400 years old and Grade II listed, is located in the village of Appledore with its long history of seafarers, smugglers and shipbuilding. Situated on Appledore's most picturesque street and just twenty paces from the sea, West Farm, which stands side-on to the road, appears to be, at first glance a small townhouse but upon entering its courtyard through the wrought iron gate you discover a grand unpretentious old home.

Of the three bedrooms, used for bed & breakfast (B & B), the large Garden Suite with its direct access onto the beautiful and secluded secret garden is particularly popular. Devotees of antiques and high-ceilinged rooms opt for the spacious and traditionally decorated double room with its grand half-tester bed.

Your Hosts

Gail and Peter encourage their bed & breakfast guests to make themselves at home; their generous, warm hospitality and the happy, relaxed atmosphere are of local renown. They will be happy to recommend several good pubs and restaurants in Appledore and Westward Ho!

The Location

As well as the local area, there are many delightful places to visit within an easy drive including, to the East, Exmoor, Lynton and Lynmouth and, to the west, Bucks Mill, Clovelly and Hartland. RHS Rosemoor, Docton Mill and Marwood gardens are all within a half hours drive. Walkers can enjoy the North Devon coast path (all the way to Land's End if you feel so inspired; Gail's outstanding breakfast will keep you going all day). The Royal North Devon Golf Club is just 1 mile away.

Finding Us

From junction 27, on the M5, take the A361 to Barnstaple, then A39 to Bideford. After crossing the river (big bridge) turn right at the big roundabout and follow signs to Appledore. After St. Mary's Church, on the left, turn right into Irsha Street. West Farm is opposite the Royal George pub. Gail will direct you to off-road parking behind West Farm with direct access into the garden.
