

WOLSEY LODGES

Toneham House

A glimpse of the five acres of garden and woodland on the edge of the fens, with huge walnut and sycamore trees framing the house and lawns to the front, gives the first indication of the treat in store for guests at Toneham House. With welcoming log fires in the reception rooms, afternoon tea is served on arrival, while guests are encouraged to relax in the delightfully decorated, antique filled drawing room.

The guest bedroom, with en suite shower room, is comfortable, warm and tastefully decorated in keeping with the rest of the house. Sarah is an ardent chef and delights in preparing beautifully cooked meals, using home and locally grown fresh ingredients, which are served in the elegant dining room.

Guests are welcome to explore the woodland, pasture and formal gardens, and make use of the grass tennis court. Toneham House stands on the site of a Medieval Benedictine convent, purportedly linked by a secret tunnel to Thorney Abbey, a mile away to the east. This is just one of the gems of fascinating local knowledge, that Tim and Sarah share with guests which helps to bring the history of the fens alive.

Your Hosts

Sarah, a professionally trained cook and Tim, who works in the city, are avid gardeners, love animals and take great pleasure in welcoming guests into their home. Both Sarah and Tim enjoy travelling, skiing and fishing.

The Location

Situated approximately 10 miles east of Peterborough, the village of Thorney is ideally located for visiting Burghley House, Sandringham, and the Nene and Ouse Washes RSPB reserve. For guests searching for history and architecture, the region is rich with interest, not least the Medieval Cathedrals in Peterborough, Ely, Cambridge and Lincoln.

Finding Us

Thorney is approximately 10 miles east of Peterborough, just off the A47. In the village of Thorney, turn south on the B1040 to Whittlesey. After 1 mile on a sharp left turn, turn right down Toneham Lane. Toneham House is approximately 300 yards on the left.
