

WOLSEY LODGES

8 Macaulay Road

With such relaxed country house charm in a tranquil tree lined street, it is easy to forget this is the heart of the Capital! Coffee or tea and a plate of home made goodies will pep you up after your journey and you can sit in the conservatory, look out over the secluded garden, even stay there for dinner and really start to unwind.

This welcoming and friendly household has four reception rooms that guests are welcome to share. The bedroom is an imaginative oasis of calm with well thought out lighting, large windows, armchairs, a television and good books for browsing. The bathroom next door has a large bath, separate self-contained power shower and is accessorised with scented bath essences and fluffy towels. Personal touches are the watchword - hot water bottles in winter, home made bread at breakfast and fresh flowers everywhere.

Coming to London for shopping or a show, or to visit your children nearby, without being kept awake by grandchildren? This is an ideal place to stay.

Your Hosts

Jeremy and Susie have both travelled extensively, living in the Far East for 10 years. Jeremy is a businessman with international interests and as Susie knows a great deal about London she will be happy to make sure you get where you want to go and plan your time effectively - so effectively in fact, that many guests return year after year!

The Location

Chelsea, Knightsbridge, the West End, and Waterloo are within easy reach as Clapham Common Tube Station is a short walk and there are frequent bus services.

Finding Us
