

WOLSEY LODGES

79 Greencroft Gardens

This Edwardian, redbrick semi-detached house is situated in a quiet, secluded residential road, with off street parking and is the perfect base from which to explore the attractions of the Capital.

Friendly and informal, 79 Greencroft Gardens places guest comfort first with its simple, relaxed feel. Personal attention to detail is evident in the beautiful, well proportioned double bedroom with en suite and in a very comfortable single room with its own private bathroom. The stylishly decorated, spacious drawing room leads out through French Windows to a peaceful, walled garden where guests can sit out in the summer, enjoy the sunshine and easily forget that the hustle and bustle of the city is only a short distance away.

From the moment you are warmly greeted with tea and cake or biscuits, you immediately feel relaxed and at home, with time on your hands to be able to think about everything you want to do and see.

Your Hosts

Penelope Lyndon-Stanford enjoys welcoming guests to her home and provides friendly, attentive yet unobtrusive service and delicious food, including a four course dinner of starter, main course, dessert and cheese. If there is anything you need, or would like any advice regarding the local attractions, all you need to do is ask.

The Location

Close to Lords cricket ground and Regents Park Zoological Gardens, you can easily cover the local area on foot or hop on the tube at Finchley Road or Swiss Cottage underground stations just 7 minutes walk away. The Metropolitan and Jubilee Lines will take you direct into the heart of the West End in just 20 minutes.
