Dippersmoor Manor

Dippersmoor Manor is a glorious mix of architectural styles encompassing medieval, Tudor and Georgian features set amid beautiful rolling countryside. Inside there are rooms featuring fine wood panelling, vaulted and beamed ceilings, inglenook fireplaces, wood burning stoves and flag-stoned floors. Outside there is a wonderful garden to enjoy with a vine and clematis covered pergola where guests can dine amid the scent of roses, lavender and sweet peas and take advantage of the peaceful surroundings and views of the Black Mountains.

The bedrooms are beautifully appointed and all have en suite bathrooms offering every comfort. Guests are offered tea and delicious cakes on arrival and a fabulous full English breakfast in the morning and it would be sad if any guest missed the chance of a superb dinner or supper in this wonderful house.

Your Hosts

Amanda and Hexie have devoted 25 years to transforming their house and garden into the haven it is today. Hexie has enjoyed a varied career but now devotes himself to the house, the farm and their guests whilst Amanda, a Cordon Bleu cook, produces exquisite meals, loves gardening and also works part time for Christies in London. They both have an outstanding knowledge and love of the area and are keen to help their guests enjoy a memorable stay.

The Location

Situated between the beautiful Cathedral city of Hereford (one of the venues for the Three Choirs Festival and home of the Mappa Mundi), the historic market town of Ross on Wye and the lovely Welsh town of Abergavenny, this area has something for everyone. The annual Hay on Wye Literary Festival is within easy reach as are the Black Mountains and it is a great area for walking, biking, canoeing, golf and fishing.
