

WOLSEY LODGES

East Bridgford Hill

A private drive sweeps through the rose garden and lawns to this Grade II listed Georgian house which stands in over six acres of grounds. The gardens and paddocks have glorious aspects over the River Trent and valley, and there is also a tennis court and croquet lawn.

It is a wonderful home full of bonhomie. Depending on time of arrival, guests are offered tea and cakes, or perhaps something stronger, which is much appreciated after a long journey.

Guests enjoy the morning room with television, the drawing room and conservatory overlooking the vale. Breakfast is taken in the large garden kitchen with adjoining orangery, giving stunning views over the valley. All rooms have been tastefully decorated to meet modern requirements, whilst retaining original Georgian features.

En suite bedrooms all have shower or bath, trouser press and toiletries. The main suite has a dressing room and single bed together with bath and shower room.

Your Hosts

Having been involved in both high profile political and business life, Alfred and Patricia are relaxed, amicable hosts, who, with their faithful labradors, delight in sharing their beautiful home.

The Location

East Bridgford, an attractive old village, provides a superb staging point, only 15 minutes to the attractions of Nottingham: the National Ice Stadium, Rowing and Tennis Centres, horse racing, theatre and restaurants, plus nearby Newark's antique shows and castle. Being in the heart of 'Robin Hood' country, many historical venues including Burghley, Belvoir and Chatsworth Houses are also an easy drive.
