

WOLSEY LODGES

Boltongate Old Rectory

A 14th century study, where guests can snuggle up to a roaring log fire, and a wonderfully romantic 16th century dining room, are just two of the secrets revealed when you step inside what is, from its exterior, a seemingly typical Victorian rectory.

There is a unique warmth and sense of serenity in this lovely home which was the runner up in the Enjoy England for Excellence awards Bed & Breakfast of the year 2008-2009. Beautifully decorated guest rooms have king size beds or larger and include thoughtful touches such as luxurious towelling dressing gowns and CD players. Tea trays are available on request. There is every comfort and guests are also welcome to use the television and DVD player in one of the two guests lounges.

Pre-dinner drinks are served in the drawing room or out on the terrace in the summer months with spectacular views of the purple tinged lakeside fells and mountains. Dining by candlelight in the intimate dining room enhances what is certainly one of the highlights of your stay.

Your Hosts

Gill, a qualified home economist, is happy to cater for any dietary requirements. She is passionate about the quality and sourcing of ingredients favouring local, organic and Fair Trade produce. David also offers an international selection of fine wines, which are his special interest. Attention to detail, excellent personal service and generous hospitality are the watchwords here.

The Location

Situated in the quieter Northern lakes, just 20 minutes drive from Keswick and the M6, this is the perfect setting from which to explore Buttermere, Derwent and Ullswater and the majestic peaks of Skiddaw and Blencathra.
